

THE CHURCH THAT I LOVE BEST

The church that I love best is small,
It is no grand pretentious hall
Set round with works of holy art--
It is the chamber of my heart.

Where else but in this secret place
May I catch glimpses of Truth's face,
And even catch, however dim,
A sense of being one with Him?

I have no church until I find
Holiness in my own mind;
Once found, wherever I may be
Becomes the house of God for me.

The light of God
surrounds us.
The love of God
enfolds us.
The power of God
protects us.
The presence of God
watches over us.
Wherever we are,
God is!
And all is well.
